"'Of the matchless liver pad!'" roare the exchange editor. "There you get it That finishes the second so as to mack with the first. It combines the fashion with poetry, and carries the idea right nome to the fireside. If I only had you ability in starting a verse with my genius in winding it up. I'd quit the shears and open in the poetry business to-morrow."
"Think so?" asked the fair young lady.
"It don't strike me as keeping up the theme."

"You don't want to. You want to break "You don't want to. You want to break the theme here and there. The reader likes it better. O yes! Where you keep up the theme it gets monotonous."
"Perhaps that so," rejoined the beauty,
brightening up. "I didn't think of that.
Now I'll read the third verse:

"How saidy doons the dying day,

"The old man's drunk sgain' wouldn't do, would it?" asked the exchange-editor. "Somebody else wrote that, and we might be accused of plagiarism. We must have this thing original. Suppose we say—now just suppose we say." Why did I spout my Ben?"

"Is that new?" inquired the sweet, rosy lips. "At least I never heard it before. "I don't know what it means."

"New? 'Deed it's new. Ben is the Presbyterian name for overcoat, and spout means to hock. Why did I spout my Ben?" means, Why did I spout my Ben? means, Why did I spout my Ben? That's just what twilight would think of first, you know. O don't be afraid—that's jifst immense!"

"Well, I'll leave it to you," said the glorious girl with a smile that pinned the exchange editor's heart to his spine. "This is the fourth verse:

maiden. "Not that."
"Certainly," protested the exchange-editor, warming up. "Nine to four she's got em; and you get fidelity to fact with a wealth of poetical expression. The worst of poetry generally is, you can't state things as they are. It ain't like prose. But here we've busted all the established notions, and put up an actual existence with a veil of genuine poetry over it. I think that's the best idea we've struck yet."

"Wouldn't that do?"

"Do! Just loot at it. Does tracks rhyme to rocks? Not in the Brooklyn Eagle it don't. Besides, when you say 'tracks' and 'rocks' you give the impression of some fellow heaving things at another fellow who's scratching for safety. 'Socks' on the other hand, rhymes with the 'rocks' and beautifies them, while it touches up the milkmaid, and by describing her condition shows her to be a child of the very Nature you are showing up."

Nature you are showing up."
"I think you're right," said the sweet angel. "I'll tell pa where he was wrong. This is the way the fifth verse runs:

The Best I Ever Sinew Of.

J. G. Starkey, a prominent and influential citizen of lowa City, says: "I have had the dyspepsia and liver complaint for several years, and have used every remedy I could hear of, without any relief whatever, until I saw your Shiloh's Vitalizer advertised in our paper, and was persuaded to try it. I am happy to state that it has entirely cured me. It's certainly the best remedy I ever knew ef." Price 75 cta.

Sold by E. Bocking, Agent, Odd Fellow's Hall, and Chas. Moenkemoeller.

The pride of a mother, the life and joy of a home, are her children, hence her grief when sickness enters and takes them away. Take warning then, that you are running a terrible risk. If they have a court, cropper or who warning then, that you are running a terrible risk, if they have a cough, croup or whooping cough, which leads to consumption, if you do not attend to it at once. My medical bills were enormous, and I visited both the Hot and I white Springs, noted for the curative qualtites of the water. I am happy to say I am now a well man, and entirely as the result of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. With such glorious results I am only too glad to testify regarding the remedy which has made me so happy.
